

Beginning immediately, Respondent shall have temporary custody of the minor child. By agreement of the parties, Respondent shall take the child back to school today. He shall pick her up from school this afternoon and take her to Petitioner's house to obtain clothes for the next few days. Respondent shall remain in his car at all times while the minor child packs. Respondent shall take the child to school on Friday, February 7, 2020. Respondent shall immediately have continuous custody of the minor child (other than school) until 10:00am on Sunday morning, February 9, 2020, at which time he will return the minor child to Petitioner's house. Again, Respondent shall not exit his vehicle at that time. Respondent shall not remove the child from the State of Missouri during this period.

Petitioner is ordered to submit proof that she took to the drug test by 4:00pm today or she shall report back to the Court February 7, 2020 at 9:00am.

SO ORDERED:

Judge Nicole S. Zellweger
Associate Circuit Judge, Division 31
February 6, 2020