Kathleen & James, I am just updating you to let you know that Ms. Freiner has not responded to multiple emails in my attempts to set up the mediation with Judge Beach. I am going to send her another email today but that will be my last attempt.

Thanks Lauren. Much appreciated.

I have Fridays off, so the 1st would be ideal. If that doesn't work, the 8th.

I would prefer if you contacted Angela. I feel she'll give you less resistance than me sharing dates with her.

Thank you,

James

Good afternoon, Judge Beach is available on April 29, May 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, or 8. We have had great success with our videoconferenced mediation sessions.

Would you like me to provide these dates to Ms. Freiner as well or will you communicate them to her?

Dear Lauren:

I will add to James' email to further advise you that Judge Zellweger again ordered the parties to mediation with Judge Beach (as she had in February). Ms. Freiner filed a motion to change that order which was denied in part and granted in part at this morning's Pre-Trial conference. The judge ordered that mediation may be by video conferencing and that the payment shall be shared 75/25 subject to reallocation. It is my client's and my hope that mediation will take place.

Please note this case is set for trial on June 5, the number one setting. Accordingly, time is of the essence to complete mediation.

Thank you.

Lauren:

It is unfortunate that Angela cannot cooperate with James to schedule the mediation date. It is my understanding that he did, in fact, communicate with her.

James lives in Montana and his flight will arrive St. Louis on March 20th and depart on the afternoon of March 26th. He is available any day/time beginning on the 20th at or after 3:00 until the 26th at noon. Would you able to coordinate with Judge Beach's availability and Angela's on those days?

I appreciate your efforts and courtesies.

Regards,

Kathleen
