Child Custody

- 6.  No change in child custody or visitation was requested by the parties.
- Visitation - A modification of visitation is necessary to serve the best interests of the child(ren).

The court has jurisdiction over the visitation arrangements of the child(ren) pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, RSMo. §452.700 et seq.

The court approves the provisions of Part A of the parenting plan marked exhibit _____ pertaining to the visitation arrangements of the child(ren) and finds that the visitation arrangements contained in said parenting plan are in the best interests of the child(ren).

Therefore, the court orders the provisions of Part A of the said parenting plan pertaining to the visitation arrangements of the child(ren) and incorporates by reference all of the terms and conditions pertaining to the visitation arrangements of the child(ren) set forth in Part A of said parenting plan as if fully set forth herein.

The sheriff or other law enforcement officers shall enforce the rights of any person to custody or visitation pursuant to RSMo. §452.425.

- Custody - A change in circumstances has occurred regarding the child(ren) or the child(ren)'s custodian which makes a modification necessary to serve the best interests of the child(ren).

The court has jurisdiction over the custody arrangements of the child(ren) pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, RSMo. §452.700 et seq.

The court approves the provisions of Part A of the parenting plan marked exhibit 1 _____ pertaining to the custodial arrangements of the child(ren) and finds that the custodial arrangements contained in said parenting plan are in the best interests of the child(ren).

Therefore, the court orders the provisions of Part A of the said parenting plan pertaining to the custodial arrangements of the child(ren) and incorporates by reference all of the terms and conditions pertaining to the custodial arrangements of the child(ren) set forth in Part A of said parenting plan as if fully set forth herein.

The sheriff or other law enforcement officers shall enforce the rights of any person to custody or visitation pursuant to RSMo. §452.425.

In the event of noncompliance with this order, the aggrieved party may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation, or third-party custody is denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved person may file a family access motion with the court stating the specific facts that constitute a violation of the custody provisions of the judgment of dissolution, legal separation, or judgment of paternity. The circuit clerk will provide the aggrieved party with an explanation of the procedures for filing a family access motion and a simple form for use in filing the family access motion. A family access motion does not require assistance of legal counsel to prepare and file.

- No change in circumstances has occurred regarding the child(ren) or the child(ren)'s custodian which makes a modification necessary to serve the best interests of the child(ren).
- The court does NOT have jurisdiction over the custody arrangements of the child(ren) pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, RSMo. §452.700 et seq. and therefore enters no further orders with respect to the custodial arrangements of the child(ren).

Child Support

- 7.  No change in child support was requested by the parties.
- A substantial and continuing change in circumstances has occurred which makes the terms concerning child support unreasonable. The court orders the provisions of Part B of the parenting plan marked exhibit 1 _____, pertaining to the support of the child(ren) and incorporates by reference all of the terms and conditions set forth in Part B of said parenting plan as if fully set forth herein.

- No substantial and continuing change in circumstances has occurred which makes the terms concerning child support unreasonable.
- The court does not have jurisdiction to enter any orders with respect to the support of the child(ren).

Maintenance - Not applicable

8.  No change in maintenance was requested by the parties.
- A substantial and continuing change in circumstances has occurred which makes the terms concerning maintenance unreasonable. _____ is ordered to pay to _____ the sum of _____ per month as and for maintenance commencing _____.
- No substantial and continuing change in circumstances has occurred which makes the terms concerning maintenance unreasonable.
- The court does not have jurisdiction to enter any orders with respect to maintenance of the parties.

9. Wage Assignment for Maintenance (If maintenance is to be paid by either party)
