JUDY P.001

JUDY P.001

been a fit mother for some time now. I am getting alot of allegation about angie. I have filled a modification. Wanting custodial change to me, on behalf of the dalilah best interests.

I am not trying to keep dalilah from her mom but dalilah needs to get out of that environment while angie takes care of herself. Angie has kept Dalilah from me and now shes trying to rip me out of her life by responding with angie wanting sole custody. Dalilah needs someone to take care of her and her needs aren't being met currently.

Rob mentioned that I should reach out to you and the rest of the family. Because I need to help my child and there have been multiple people reaching out to me saying some extremely concerning things involving Dalilah. This is why I am here messaging you because I know you love and care about my daughter too.

I hope you'll talk to me about what my daughter is experiencing at home. Dalilah needs an advocate. Anything you tell me will be confidential and I will not be sharing with angie.

This is so weird you reached out to me....I've been debating contacting you regarding this

JUDY P.003

I haven't really had too much to do with Angie for a couple of years. I do know Dalilah didn't get anything for Christmas. This past winter she did not have a coat or clothes that fit her. I bought her a coat, couple pair of leggings and pullovers, pj's, gloves and socks. Chris had Mikayla take her to get some underwear and bras. When I asked Angie why D didn't have any clothes she told me she hasn't been working and you weren't sending any child support. I don't have proof but it's obvious Angie is on some kind of drugs. At aunt Angels nursing home, Angie was twiking and a hot mess. Our family is so disgusted with her behavior. Feel free to call me anytime. Brandon could tell you so much more.

It confirmed all my suspicions about Angie's. Rob started telling me about Dave and you know Dave P.

I haven't had much proof but I have been getting a lot of people concerned contacting me, people I don't even know.

I know Angie has been lying about me to everyone. Angie wants to play, feel sorry for me I am a single mother that has to raise Dalilah by herself. Just so you know I am currently do not owe any child support. I have been paying her extra money every single month. Angie had me blocked to where I couldn't even get a hold of Dalilah the entire school

Brandon has some crazy stories about Angie also

Dalilah has told me that she has visited your side of the family. I had asked her why her mother wasn't with and she replied that you guys were had some kinda falling out. I am glad she still get to visit. I thought your family has always been warm and open.

I will always love D and I will always be here for her.

I didn't think Braden would to to me about any of this. I felt like she would guilt trip him

Brandon is fed up with her also

Every one is!!

Even my mom

No one has anything to do with her anymore

I do to. I have worked really hard to get where I am at toda. I have done it mostly for Dalilah. I have always wanted the best for Dalilah

I know you have

Just know that D is living in a disgusting dirty house

I had to get a way from Angie's toxic behavior. She was bring me down. I just

I personally can't stand her

Let me know if I can do anything to help.

When I picked D up this last go around when angie left town and Dalilah was home alone for a week. With Jim only checking in on her occasionally I rushed out there as fast as I could. Yeah denise!!! Dalilah hadn't had hot water for a few weeks

No one can stand her!!!

Wtf?

OMG I had no idea. I would have went and got her. I had no had a stroke last year. I'm not able to get around like I use too so I'm kind of a home body now.

I am getting futher in this custody battle. My Attorney advised a guardian ad litem. Would you mind talking with her ? Everything that I will be saying to her will be confidence and Angie will not know what's going on Yeah denise its fucked up.

Yes of course!!

No way denise, I am sorry to hear about that.

Your conversation still seems to be good. How serious of a stroke was it learn to walk again. I had a hole in my heart that caused the stroke, I had heart surgery 3 weeks after the stroke. I was out of work for 6 months.

I'm doing ok but I have some Residuals

I'm going to bed my love. Reach out to me anytime.

Hey Denise, I have a very important meeting with a parent guardian ad litem on saturday regarding the Dalilah best interests. It's a neutral party that determines what's best for dalilah . It is very much confidential and nobody hears the other side of the story. Could I use you as a reference if needed? it would truly mean a lot for me and for Dalilah's well me and for Dalilah's well being.
